

Rolling Advertisement

Office of the Dean, Faculty Affairs

Name of the position	Post-Doctoral Research Fellow
No. of position	01
Type of engagement	Temporary
Name of the Project	Investigating the Protein Dynamics Guided Evolution and Allostery for Therapeutic Potential and Applications
Funding Agency	Indian Institute of Science Education and Research, Berhampur
Principal investigators (PIs) with contact details	Dr. Himanshu Singh, Department of Chemical Sciences, IISER Berhampur Emails: himanshus@iiserbpr.ac.in
Qualification and Experience	Ph.D. in Chemistry, or Biochemistry, or Biotechnology. Background experience and knowledge in cloning, transformation, protein overexpression, and purification are a must. The selected candidates should be interested in research at the interface of NMR spectroscopy and biophysical chemistry. Good communication and writing skills are a plus. Experience with Python is desirable. The applicant should have the ability to work in a team.
Period of engagement	1 year (extendable based on performance and funding availability)
Fellowship/Remuneration per month (₹)	As per institute norms
Job duties	Cloning, transformation, protein overexpression and purification, and isotope labelling. The position will provide opportunities for advancing the applicant's career (teaching, research, and professional development).
Last date of applications	A detailed CV with mobile (pdf file < 10 MB) and a research statement containing the background and motivation for research as a single pdf file to be sent to: himanshus@iiserbpr.ac.in within a week with the subject line "Application for PDRF position". The advt will remain active till a suitable candidate is found. For any other details, candidates may contact via Email.
Interview	The date of interview will be informed later to the shortlisted Candidates through Email/phone. The interview will be conducted online via Google Meet or Zoom platform followed by personal meet.

 Himanshu Singh
 27-09-23